HWC 240
Introduction to World Literature

This course is an introduction to the field of world literature through analyzing literary works in a global context. The course will cover topics such as what is literature, the challenges to reading works across different cultures, the history of writing technologies, the effects of market forces on literature and more! The course is designed to expand the critical thinking skills and global awareness of students.

Satisfies:
- Goal 2 Outcome 1
- Humanities

Taught by Dr. Diane Fourny
This course is being offered online